NOTES OF THE SOCIETY

The meeting on Saturday, October 9, was "full of a number of things". First, was an entertaining talk by Mr. George Frederick Blount on "My Ancestors' Powder Horns". Mr. Blount says his interest in genealogy began with an old powder horn that came down to him in the Fangboner line, a record of which family line appears in issues of this magazine from January to June, 1943. Many of his collection of old powder horns were used to illustrate his talk.

Second on our list of good things for the day was the talk by Mr. Robert H. Larson, Director of the Detroit Historical Museum, on "The Detroit Historical Society and Its Future". With an enthusiasm that speaks well for its future, Mr. Larson drew a picture of some of the plans that are now being made to give Detroit an historical museum worthy of its history. As many of our members are also members of the Detroit Historical Society we are all interested in this development.

Last, but by no means least, on the program, Miss Louisa Butler, Curator at the Detroit Historical Museum, really made it full of good things by her vivacious and often amusing story of a "Trip to Some New York Museums", a trip which she took as a sort of busman's holiday on her summer vacation. It was a most enjoyable story. Miss Butler is a daughter of our Program Chairman, Mrs. Jefferson Butler.

At the November meeting, on Saturday the 13th, Dr. Milo M. Quaife, Secretary of the Burton Collection of the Detroit Public Library, and well-known historian, gave us the privilege of being the first to hear his article on "Some of the First Cities of Michigan Territory". Discussing the founding of St. Ignace, Green Bay and Niles (St. Joseph), Dr. Quaife told of many most interesting facts of our early history that his research has discovered. In a lively discussion which followed he refuted a number of traditions and stressed the need in genealogy as well as in history of separating tradition from fact; of trying to find our real ancestor, be he who he may, instead of trying to find an ancestor whom we would like to be ours. This seems to us a point that can not be too often emphasized. Thanks to Dr. Quaife.

Mr. Roy H. Stephens, a charter member of the Society, died suddenly on October 20. Mr. Stephens was born near Charlotte, Michigan, July 3, 1877. He came to Detroit at an early day and became associated with the Acme White Lead and Color Works, of which he was treasurer at the time of his death. Mr. Stephens was widely known as a collector of fine English pottery, and was the owner of a large collection of rare stamps and historical books, especially of those pertaining to Napoleon. Two sons survive him, Professor Robert G. Stevens of Indiana University, and Willis H. Stephens of Fort Wayne, Ind. His wife, Mrs. Jeanette Stephens, died in 1926.

Miss Marjorie Hudson, daughter of City Attorney William Clarence Hudson and Mrs. Hudson, of Royal Oak, Michigan, was married there in St. John's Episcopal Church on October 29, 1943, to Ensign Robert Salmon, Jr., USNR, son of Mrs. Cartwright Salmon of New Canaan, Connecticut and Robert Salmon, Sr. of Buenos Aires, Argentina. Both Mr. and Mrs. Salmon were graduated from Antioch College, Yellow Springs, Ohio, in June, 1942, and both had been employed in New York City. Through her father, Mrs. Salmon is descended from John Hudson, who came to the United States from London, England, in 1818. His son, William Spencer, married Bertha Caroline Martindill, whose father's mother was a Claypool. (See "Joseph Claypole of Virginia" in the September-October, 1943, issue of this magazine.) She is also descended from the Atkinsons, Scotch-Irish settlers in Pennsylvania. Mrs. Hudson was Lelia A. Davis, daughter of James J. and Sarah (Hawk) Davis of Vinton County, Ohio. James J. Davis was a descendant of William Davis, a Revolutionary veteran from Rhode Island, and of many old New England families, such as the Blakeleys, Rootes, Carpenters, Lanes, Hurds, Kimballs, Potters, Rathburns, etc. Mrs. Davis was of Pennsylvania-German extraction, a descendant of Melchior Brumbach, who operated the first iron works in America for Governor Spottswood at Germanna, Virginia.

Mr. Roy E. McFee has two interesting articles in recent national magazines. One is found in "Compressed Air Magazine" for November and is entitled "Pioneers in American City Engineering"; the other is in the November issue of the "National Historical Magazine, D.A.R." on "The Three Hundredth Anniversary of the Death of Anne Hutchinson". Mr. McFee, like many another engineer, is intensely interested in genealogy and is doing valuable research work in that line as well as in that of engineering.

On Friday, November 12, about thirty-five members of this society attended the big meeting of all historical societies in the Detroit area, a meeting held to start the ball rolling to obtain a building to worthily house a great Detroit museum. The speaker of the evening was Mr. L. Hubbard Shattuck, Director of the Chicago Historical Society. As a society working in one branch of history, we are of course very much interested in the successful outcome of this project. Mr. Clarence R. Martin is the delegate from this society to the Detroit Council on Local History.

Mr. Edward G. Beal of Detroit has a fascinating hobby. He collects odd and amusing names, has literally thousands of them, some almost unbelievable. His researches in genealogy furnish him with hundreds of names for his collection. Have you a hobby that is a sort of side line to or outgrowth of your interest in genealogy?

Of interest to genealogists is an item in the July issue of the "William and Mary College Quarterly Historical Magazine", Williamsburg, Virginia: In January, 1944 the title will be changed to the William and Mary Quarterly, A Journal of Early American History, Institutions and Culture. Genealogical notes will be omitted. The Librarian, Earl G. Swem, who has been Managing Editor for the past twenty-three years, will retire as editor with the October issue, and as librarian of the college in June, 1944. Mr. Swem is perhaps best known to genealogists as the author of the "Virginia Historical Index", an invaluable aid to all researchers among Virginia families.

Mr. Charles A. Wilson of Minneapolis, Minnesota, was a welcome visitor at the December meeting. It has been several years since he was in Detroit, but he remains a faithful and always interested member of the society. If you remember his "Answer to a Genealogist's Prayer", the birth of a grandson, (August-September, 1941) you will be pleased to know that a second grandson has been born since then.

Friends of Mrs. Robert E. Wiley of Rockford, Illinois, who has returned to her home from Detroit, raised 1000 chickens last summer, and is now teaching school again at a small town near Rockford. This is her contribution to the war effort, in which both her husband and son are engaged.

Mrs. Eliene H. Stones, chief of staff of the Burton Historical Collection of the Detroit Public Library, attended an important meeting, November 15 to 17, in Princeton, New Jersey - the combined meeting of the Society of American Archivists and that of the American Association for State and Local History. The first Society is concerned with the housing and care of national and state archives; the second, in the preservation of war records and in plans for better post war collections of all kinds and in every region. The meeting was even international in character as there were delegates from the Netherlands, Canada and some other nations present.

Two recent additions to the Burton Historical Collection are Vol. VIII of the "American Genealogical Index" - Cook to Cyrus; and from the library of the late Ralph Norton Flint, "A List of Patents of Land to be Sold in January, 1822, for arrears in Quit Rent" (New York) - this is fully indexed. These are only two of the books which are being added constantly to this Collection which we are so fortunate to be able to use for our historical and genealogical research.

BISHOP FAMILY RECORD
Contributed by Francis Waring Robinson Of Detroit

Note:- The following letter was found among the papers of the late Malcolm Day Rudd of Lakeville, Connecticut, now in the possession of the contributor. FWR

Brother Garwood (Bishop)

Woodbury (Conn.) Feb. 5th, 1859

I recv.d your letter last evening accompanying the currycombs which I duly appreciate & I may requite in something that may be as acceptable to you. They are a beautiful article. My old one is about used up. I was verry glad allso in seeing Charles' letter he sent you. I do hope Charles will have discretion enough to not declare his faith in spiritualism & infidelity. The Eastons are men of good moral if not religious principles I believe & if Charles talks there as he did here I fear he will loose that friendship which he now enjoys. I supposed that Uncle Zachariah Long was dead not having heard from him in many years but it seems that he is yet alive. As for knowing anything about Aunt Parmeloe I do not. I suppose that Bateman can give the desired information. I have nothing particular to write. I am a little better a few days & hope I may be able to go about away from home & if well enough in the spring I intend to come & see you. Otherwise we (are) as usual.

I will begin with the record of births as taken from Father's record and inserted in my Bible:

Luther Bishop born Oct. 24th, 1763
Sybel Bishop born Sept. 17th, 1773

Julia wife of Bateman Smith died Jany. 25th, 1853 in the 57th year of her age.
Sybel wife of Luther Bishop died Sept. 26th, 1856 age 83 years.

I should have been glad of the record of Grandfather's & Grandmother's births & deaths but it was not to be found among Father's books & papers.

I will close with our love & best wishes.

Salmon Bishop.

On a slip of paper found with this letter is the following record:

Sybil Bishop died Sept. 26th, 1856, aged 83 years.
Salmon Bishop died Febr. 10th, 1863, aged 70 years.

The removal of your great-great-grandfather from Vermont to western New York (as his father had moved from Connecticut to Vermont) and his children from New York to Michigan is not only a significant fact in your family history, but part of a great migration of importance in its origins and far-reaching in its consequences.

A CARUTHERS FAMILY RECORD
Contributed by Miss Isabella Neff Burnet of Charlottesville, Virginia.

Note:- This history of the Caruthers Family was written by Professor Duncan C. Lyle, of McDonogh School, Baltimore, Maryland, about 1895. The original manuscript belongs to Mrs. Esther Caruthers Fishburn of Charlottesville, Virginia. INB

Editor's note:- Miss Burnet copied and mimeographed this original manuscript and presented a copy to this society.

WILLIAM CARUTHERS. The first record that can now be found is in the court books in Staunton, Va. -- a deed for 297 acres of land from Jno. Mathews to Wm Caruthers, dated May 17, 1748. Next we find the name of William Caruthers signed to the call of the Rev. John Brown to the pastorate of Timber Ridge Church (Rockbridge Co., Virginia) in 1753, and to the subscription for the pastor's salary in the Timber Ridge congregation in 1754 and 1755. May 12, 1756, Wm. Caruthers and Margaret, his wife, make a deed for 361 acres of land to John Mackey. Aug. 21, 1758, Archd Alexander and Magdalen Bowyer, who were executors for Benjamin Borden, deeded 96 acres to Wm. Caruthers. These are the only records to be found in the Staunton deed books. In Lexington a deed is recorded from Wm. Caruthers and his wife Margaret to one Defries, dated Feb. 5, 1787. This is the latest record found. No will can be found in Staunton, in Fincastle, or in Lexington. And no trace is found of any other Caruthers than this William or his descendants. Indeed, it has never been doubted that all of the name in Rockbridge were of one family.

William Caruthers and his wife, Margaret, lived on their farm in "The Forks", above the junction of the North River with the James. This farm, after William's death, passed into the hands of his son, Joseph Caruthers, who sold to Watts and he to Amole. Of the trans-Atlantic connections of William Caruthers little is known. William Caruthers of DeSoto, Fla. wrote, July 9, 1889:

"Dr. Horace Caruthers of Tarrytown, N. Y. wrote to me the other day that several years ago at St. Augustine, Fla., he met a Mr. John Carruthers (two r's) of Kingston, Canada, who both in face and figure was strikingly like my brother, and who assured him that we were from the Carruthers family of Housman Annendale, Scotland. He spoke broad Scotch."

Of the personal appearance of Wm. Caruthers and his wife, only this has been transmitted: The widow of the Rev. Samuel Houston (she was Margaret Walker, daughter of Joseph Walker and Jane Moore) remembered, and told Mr. Caruthers of DeSoto, Fla., that when she was a girl William Caruthers and his wife visited at her father's. He was a "tall red-faced man". His wife, "whose name was Margaret, was a small woman with elbows turned out".

They brought up a family of five sons and two daughters. The brief and imperfect notes regarding the sons given on the pages following, show that they were men of prominence in Rockbridge. Some were men of commanding influence.

SAMUEL CARUTHERS. All that is known of him, except a mere mention in Waddell's Annals of Augusta County, is derived from his will, recorded in Lexington. It gives to his wife Rebecca a horse, saddle, bridle, household furniture, $1200 in money, and a negro girl. The rest of the estate to be sold, and the proceeds put at interest for the use of testator's daughter Esther, when she becomes 18 years of age. "If she dies in her nonage, her part to be divided among my brothers Robert, John, James, Joseph, and my sister Rachel". The will bears no date. It was made when testator was "in a low state of health". Proved October 5, 1779. Witnesses:

John Trimble, James Caruthers, Wm. Houston. Executors: John Moffett, John Caruthers and wife, Rebecca. The security required by court of the executors was $8000, which seems to imply that the estate was of considerable value. A tract of 365 acres of land is mentioned in the will as part of the estate.

The paragraph in Waddell's Annals referred to above is worth quoting in this connection: (p. 164)

"On the 14th of May (1778) the court (of Rockbridge County) sat for the trial of Mary Walker, wife of John Walker, who stood charged 'with speaking words maintaining the power and authority of the King and Parliament of Great Britain over the United States of America'. A jury was impaneled, consisting of Henry McClung (who married Esther Caruthers), William Ramsey, John and Samuel Caruthers, Hugh Barkley, William Paxton, and others, and after due trial the accused was pronounced guilty of the charge preferred."

It seems well settled by tradition that the wife of Samuel Caruthers was Rebecca Moffett, but I do not know to which of the two distinct families of Moffetts that settled in the Valley of Virginia she belonged.

The following extract from a letter of Mrs. Mary Barclay Moon, written August 1895, may be set down here:

"I think I have heard that my ancestor, Samuel Caruthers, was his father's oldest son and was only half-brother to the other sons. This is probably true, as I know my grandmother (Esther Caruthers) had first cousins named Caruthers who were younger than any of her children, --- some of them not many years older than John Barclay and myself, who are the oldest grandchildren."

Samuel Caruthers and his wife Rebecca Moffett had only one child, at least only one that survived the father. She was:-

Esther Caruthers, who married Michael Woods, about 1795, possibly 1796. Their children were:

1. Rebecca Moffett Woods, who died young.

4. Mary Woods, born 1803, married Nov. 1821, Hugh Barclay of Lexington, Va. merchant, Presiding Justice of Rockbridge. Trustee Washington College 1844-70. He died Dec. 16, 1870. She died 1855. Their children:

He died 1851. Left a daughter who married a Clark of Madison Co., Va. She died leaving an only daughter.
6. Samuel Caruthers Woods, born 1807, died about 1860. Married Sarah Rodes of Albemarle Co. Went west and brought up a family of whom nothing is known except that one son is living in West Virginia.
7. Wm. Moffett Woods, Wash. College 1818, from Nelson Co., farmer Buckingham Co. Born 1809, died about 1862. Married first Louisa Dabney of Albemarle, who died 1844 leaving two children, a son and daughter; second, Martha Scott of Albemarle Co., who left several children, only one of whom, together with the son of the first marriage, is now living.
8. Jane Ledgerwood Woods, born 1811, married a Mr. Hardy, went to Missouri and died there after a few years, leaving three daughters, all of whom died without descendants.
9. Michael Woods, born about 1812. At Washington College, Lexington, Va. 1826, having registered from Nelson Co. Died while a student at College.

ESTHER CARUTHERS. Her tombstone, in Timber Ridge churchyard, bears the inscription: "Died October 27, 1818, aged 74 years". This makes her birth year 1744. The known relationship between her son, Capt. Henry McClung, and the descendants of the other Carutherses makes it certain that she was the sister (or half-sister) of Capt. John Caruthers and Major James Caruthers, tho she is not mentioned among her brothers and sister in Samule's will.

She married Henry McClung, son of James McClung, one of the earliest settlers of Rockbridge, and a member of the Timber Ridge congregation. Henry McClung lived within a mile or two of the old Timber Ridge church, built in 1756 and still used as the worshipping place of the congregation; was a farmer of moderate circumstances; and died at the age of 45, leaving a family of four sons, all minors, and two daughters. His tombstone in Timber Ridge churchyard bears an inscription, now almost illegible, "Died February 3, 1784, aged 45 years".

His will is on record in Lexington. It provides for wife Esther, and divides the landed property among the three oldest sons, who are to pay the fourth son, Henry, an equivalent in money. If any one of the three died under age his part is to go to Henry, who then will get no payment from his surviving brothers. Will dated June 24, 1783, proved May 4, 1784. Exec'rs John McClung, John Caruthers, wife Esther. Witnesses: James Ramsey, James Caruthers, Joseph Caruthers.

Henry McClung (born 1739) and Esther Caruthers (born 1744) had four sons and two daughters who survived their father, namely:

1. James McClung, born Sept. 7, 1767, died Jan. 14, 1817, aged 49 years, 4 months and 7 days. Married Elizabeth.----. She was born July 31, 1770, died Dec. 13, 1813, aged 43 years, 5 months and 13 days. James McClung was a minor at the date of his father's will. Inherited the middle third of his father's lands, on which the dwelling house stood. His own will, not dated, mentions sons Henry, John and James and sister Margaret. His mother living. "I direct that she receive a support from my executor agreeable to the last will of my father out of my estate". "Plantation on which I live 360 A". Directs education of sons. Brother Henry McClung sole executor. Inventory of personality, made March 10, 1817, amounted to $1982.46. Three sons.

1. Henry McClung
2. John McClung
3. James McClung

Dr. J. A. Waddell, in a letter dated Feb. 12, 1889, says: "My wife says that her father (Capt. Henry McClung) when she was a child had two nephews, John and James McClung. John went south and disappeared. James married in Albemarle and I think he or his family lived on the Scotsville turnpike thirty years ago".

2. William McClung.

3. Samuel McClung. Of these nothing is known beyond what is stated in their father's will. Dr. Waddell says in the letter quoted from above: "She (my wife) remembers to have heard her father say that he had no near McClung kin in Rockridge; that the Knoxville, Tenn. McClungs were nearer to him than any others".

4. Capt. Henry McClung, born probably about 1776. Married Nov. 16, 1802, Elizabeth Alexander, sister of Rev. Dr. Alexander of Princeton. She was born Nov. 17, 1782, and died 1869, aged 87. He lived on the farm now (1895) used as the Poor House Farm in Rockbridge. Then removed to Lexington. Kept a hotel there, and later in Staunton. Was captain of artillery in the war of 1812. Trustee of Washington College 1812-30. Died 1846. Their children:

1. Elvira C. McClung, married James G. Lyle. He was born April 5, 1803, son of Capt. Wm. Lyle of Rockbridge Co. A. B. Washington College 1823. Lawyer. Removed to Georgia, then to Wetumpka, Ala. Died in Rockbridge Co., Sept. 29, 1837, while he and his family were on a visit to Capt. Wm. Lyle. She returned after his death to Wetumpka, and remained there a few years, then removed to Va. and lived at her father's in Staunton, where her children grew up. After her children were grown she was a teacher in the family of William Frazier at the Alum Springs. Her daughters taught also, elsewhere. Children:

1. Bettie Lyle, one of twins, the other died in infancy.

Born say 1830. Teacher. Died 1886, unmarried.

CONCORD, MICHIGAN, CEMETERY
Contributed by Mrs. W. H. Martens of Detroit.

Note: This is a small cemetery, evidently a family plot. It is located on Route 60, about one mile west of Concord, Jackson County, Michigan. It is in very bad condition, overrun with weeds and with many stones broken or buried almost entirely. On the day visited, April 24, 1942, a hen turkey was discovered with her nest in the deep brush.

Gen. Hull - It is stated in the Boston Patriot, that Gen. Hull has written and is about publishing in the Boston Centinel, a "history of his campaign at Detroit". It is presumed that, inasmuch as the events of the "campaign" are pretty fresh in the memories of many persons in these parts, the General has written his history with due caution, and a proper regard to accuracy.

Detroit Gazette - April 9, 1824.

Mr. Ralph Norton Flint, whose death occurred on the 2nd of February, 1944, in Detroit, Michigan, left a large and valuable library of historical and genealogical works. Mr. Flint was a charter member of the Detroit Society for Genealogical Research and because of his interest in it his sons offered as a gift such books as we might wish. Mrs. Stones and her staff selected such books, pamphlets and manuscripts as were not included in the Burton Historical Collection and they are now on file there. They include the 1790 census for a number of the states and many books relating to New York and to the Mohawk Valley, a section of the country in which Mr. Flint was especially interested. The society is deeply grateful for this generous gift to Mr. Flint's three sons: Mr. John E. Flint of Detroit; Mr. Warner E. Flint of Palisades Park, New Jersey; and Capt. Robert N. Flint of New York City. All other books in Mr. Flint's library were bought by the Detroit Public Library. Mr. Flint was for years a patent attorney for General Motors, and always interested in genealogy. As part of his work he compiled the line of Alexander Flint in "Robert Flint - The Pioneer - and his Descendants" by C. Ellis Flint, 1932.

A BURRALL FAMILY NOTE

Contributed by Mrs. E. B. Kresge of Royal Oak, Michigan.

From a Bible published in 1860 by the American Bible Society. The following inscription appears on the fly-leaf: "To Edward W Burrall from his father Thomas D Burrall 79 today, Geneva, 2nd June 1865".

On a blank page between the Old and New Testaments: "Edward W Burrall 1883".

In the back of the book there is a lengthy item, pasted in, from the "Churchman", July 20, 1872. This item states that Thomas Davies Burrall, M.A., recently deceased at the age of eighty-six, was a grandson of Rev. Thomas Davies, A. M., of Litchfield county, Conn.; was a graduate of Yale; an early settler in Geneva and one of the projectors of Geneva Academy; also member and parish officer of Trinity Church.

On the opposite page are three news items pasted in concerning the death of E. W. Burrall, but no dates given. E. W. Burrall, second son of Thomas D. Burrall, died at Willard "last Monday". He was buried from the home of his brother E. J. Burrall, Rev. Dr. Rankine, officiating. "The face of the deceased was calm and placid - not much like the jolly fellow of thirty years ago, the life of every circle, and the best commercial traveler of that day. Thousands of the famous Burrall Corn Sheller were sold by him, and at one time it would have been as strange to see a barn without one of these shellers as a house without a tea-kettle." E. W. Burrall buried in Geneva.

An account of Thomas D. Burrall may be found in "Yale Biographies".

"The History of Ontario County, N. Y. (1876) contains references to these Burralls.

For an account of Rev. Thomas Davies - Appleton's "Cyclopedia of American Biography".

DIED - the 19th of April, 1840, Mrs. Elizabeth Souder, aged seventy-five years, one month and twenty four days. Mrs. Souder's last sickness was of the most distressing kind, which she bore up under with unparalled calmness and patience. She was a devoted follower of Christ for fifty-two years and when upon her death bed she found she was prepared for the solemn event, and consequently anxiously desired the arrival of the time of her departure. She has left six children, a number of grandchildren, and several great grandchildren, together with a large circle of relatives and friends to lament the loss of an affectionate parent and friend - but they "do not sorrow as those that have no hope". AMERICAN ANCESTRY

 SAMUEL TOMPKINS AND MARTHA ALPHEA (TODD) SCHUREMAN AND THEIR DESCENDANTS
 By Frances Ida Schureman Judd of Detroit, Michigan.

Children of AY1 William and BY1 Martha (----) Palmer:

- I. Joseph 2 Palmer d. Flushing, Long Island, N. Y., Dec. 4, 1726; m. Sarah Denham, d. Flushing, Long Island, Feb. 2 (or 18), 1711. She was a daughter of the Rev. Thomas Denham, pastor of the Established Church at Rye, N. Y. in 1677. His will dated May 2, 1688. Joseph and Sarah moved from Westchester to Flushing before 1701, and were actively identified with the Quakers. All of their children were said to have been born at Flushing.

Children of Joseph 2 and Sarah (Denham) Palmer:

Y., 1697; 1698, gave his Oath of allegiance to "his Majestie King William" at Lower Yonkers, as did his eldest sons William 3, Obadiah 3, and Nehemiah 3. In the 1698 Census of Mamaroneck, listed at the end of Samuel's family were "Hanah Jones and ye neger girl". During the year 1700 Samuel secured an assignment of the Great Middle Neck at Mamaroneck from Robert Richbell, a former mortgagee under his uncle, John Richbell. Nov. 5, 1701, Ann Hook, the Indian Sachem, released a tract of land to Samuel Palmer. Bolton's "History of Westchester County" and other county records describe many of Samuel's transactions. He was called the "proprietor of Mangopson's Neck". Evidently Samuel and his wife Mary were devoted Quakers. The births of their children are recorded at the Quaker Church at Harrison's Purchase (now Purchase), Westchester Co., N. Y.

And also what land she shall think fit to use for her own purposes. The maiden name of Mary, wife of AY2 Samuel 2 Palmer, is unknown to the writer. Samuel's will leaving decisions to her judgement indicates that he trusted her good sense. Her own will, making bequests to four grand-daughters named "Mary", probably her namesakes, make it seem likely that she was much loved by her sons and daughters in-law. Her own will follows: "I Mary Palmer of Mamaroneck, in Westchester Co., widow of Samuel Palmer, being in perfect understanding. After all debts are paid, I leave to my son Obadiah Palmer 30 (pounds) and my silver tankard, during his lifetime, and then to his daughter Mary Ann. I leave to my grand-daughter, Esther Palmer, the daughter of Obadiah Palmer, my best suit of weaving clothes and my best silk hood. I leave to my son Sylvanus 20 (pounds). I leave to my grand-daughter Mary Palmer daughter of Nehemiah Palmer 10 (pounds) and two silver spoons. To my grand-daughter Mary Palmer daughter of Sylvanus 10 (pounds) and two silver spoons. To my grand-daughter Mary Palmer daughter of Solomon Palmer 10 (pounds) and my silver tankard. These sums is to be put out at interest till they are of age. All the rest to my four sons, Obadiah, Nehemiah, Sylvanus and Solomon. I make my son Obadiah and John Griffin, of Mamaroneck, and Josiah Quimby, executors". Dated Sept. 1, 1728. Witnesses - John Hunt, James Mott, Tristram Sobey. Proved, Oct. 7, 1728. ("James Mott, Obadiah Palmer and Josiah Quimby 'being of the People called Quakers'").

Witnesses: Solomon Palmer, Gilbert Palmer, John Stevenson. Proved Feb. 27, 1749.

In none of the genealogical works consulted by the writer has there been the slightest suggestion that investigation has ever disclosed the ancestry of DY2 "Anna" Palmer, wife of AY3 Obadiah 3 Palmer. She is recorded many times, but no hint of her family name appears. No single result of the writer's investigations has yielded more satisfaction than has the emergence of "Anna's" fine family! A family whose contributions to America in its beginnings were character, mentality and Christian courage. Whenever the writer happened upon the name of de Bonrepos there was always a feeling - inexplicable to one who has not had a similar experience - that the de Bonrepos belonged! One day she learned why! They did! Among the gleanings of the Huguenot Society of America are found traces of the de Bonrepos family, corroborated by wills, deeds, church and town records and histories. Their trail leads back to France, Holland, the West Indies, Boston and Salem, Massachusetts, New Rochelle, New Paltz, Ulster Co., Staten Island and New York City, N. Y. What tales of those voyages might have been recorded!
